Atlas Copco Compressor Technique Services

ComfortAIR

7 years extended warranty and peace of mind

Being an Atlas Copco distributor we like to treat you as business class. From the moment you are airborne with us, your comfort is our main concern. A seven year extended warranty on Atlas Copco equipment is the kind of protection that will give you that peace of mind. ComfortAIR is the name of this exclusive service for authorized Atlas Copco distributors. A pillow for comfort, a blanket of protection, it will take the load of your shoulders.

- full maintenance according to Atlas Copco standards

The best protection for Atlas Copco equipment is full maintenance in line with Atlas Copco's recommended service intervals, according to Atlas Copco's standards and always including Genuine Parts. Guaranteeing such level of service to your customers will surely make them loyal to you.

- flexible payment

According to your specific needs, we can adjust the payment schedule to monthly, quarterly or yearly. Mileage and labour for warranty interventions are covered by a fixed rate per claim. No unexpected costs, less turbulence, more comfort.

- 5% rebate at the end of the agreement term

If the Atlas Copco product protected by ComfortAIR runs for the 7 year course without any warranty claim, you will get a 5 % rebate at the end of the agreement term. It's like having a retro-active assurance for the quality of our products.

- adjustable to accumulating running hours

Changing operating conditions may require changes in the utilization of compressors and dryers. ComfortAIR is adjustable to the variations in yearly running hours to meet the new requirements. Being assured your machines are covered and serviced correctly as utilization changes takes a load off your mind.

- 7 years peace of mind

Seven years without a hitch: Full protection through an extended factory warranty and the correct maintenance guarantee providing maximum uptime and increased productivity for your customers. Just sit back, relax and enjoy the next 7 years.
